REPORT HIGHLIGHTS

The 2023 season got underway in earnest in the west with solid double-digit gains over May 2022 while in the east; Ontario, Quebec and the Atlantic region continued to endure questionable weather conditions with the Atlantic provinces experiencing the most problematic. Ontario managed a small increase, while both Quebec and Atlantic were off significantly from last May.

Nationally, average rounds grew by 8.5% bringing the YTD just into positive territory with a 2.9% increase, reflecting a very poor April start.

On a brighter note, all regions comfortably exceeded 5-year average May levels by amounts ranging from 11% to 57%!
